Retreat Information:

The Forty Hours Retreat is held at the Highlands Retreat Center, near Estes Park, Colorado (www.highlandscamp.org).

The weekend will include corporate community and worship gatherings and as well as time for individual study and reflection.

The retreat involves a significant portion of the weekend in silence. Silence is observed all day Saturday.

Cell phones, email, and other outside communication are discouraged during the weekend. In case of emergency you can be reached through Highlands Retreat Center at (303)747-2888.

No children are allowed due to the silence of the weekend.

Space is limited, all registrations are taken on a first-come, first served basis. All deposits are non-refundable.

For more information please contact Jared at jmackey@tnl.org.

Housing & Meals:

Check-in Friday at 6:00pm; the retreat program begins at 7:00pm. Friday dinner is not provided.

Saturday breakfast, lunch, dinner, and Sunday breakfast are provided. All meals are family style.

Check-out and retreat program conclude Sunday at 11:00am. Sunday lunch is not provided. There are several restaurants nearby in Estes Park or Lyons for Friday dinner or Sunday lunch.

All rooms accommodate four individuals. You will receive rooming assignments on arrival. There are no room requests for the weekend.
