REDEMPTION,
HOPE &
HEALING

The Bible tells the stories of many broken, damaged and dented people. Some were murders, thieves and liars, while others were prostitutes, cowards and hypocrites. The Bible recounts the stories of people whom, despite their failures and faults, God still loved and used in order to tell his story of grace, mercy and forgiveness. This summer we are going to retell these stories and seek to understand how God can bring redemption, hope, and healing into our own lives.

FOLLOW-UP TO LAST TUESDAY

There was a significant response within this community to the idea of coming out of hiding last week. People expressed their experiences of brokenness, hurt, confusion, and regret. We want to help extend those moments of vulnerability into conversations that may foster healing and redemption. If it would help, any of the pastors would love to meet with you to further your processing. Contact information for Jared, Brian, Chip and John can be found at www.tnl.org/contact. If you believe counseling would be helpful, or would specifically like to talk with a woman, contact TNLC Counseling Intern Julie Wagner at tnlcounseling@gmail.com.

ROYAL FAMILY KIDS CAMP NEXT WEEK

Royal Family Kids Camp provides a week of residential summer camp for the unseen and neglected children in the Denver area who are in contact with Denver Social Services and in most cases in foster care. Next week over 20 adults from TNL are taking 24 kids to camp. Thanks to the generosity of many from within TNL we have 21 of the 24 children sponsored. Please pray for both the adults and children this next week. For more information about RFKC visit the RFKC table in the Lobby or contact Becky Rinehart at beckylee712@mac.com.
